Adrenal C Formula®

Recommended For: Adrenal Fatigue

Vitamin C complex uniquely designed for stress and adrenal fatigue. Stress dramatically increases the need for vitamin C, especially in the adrenal glands. Adrenal C Formula® created by Dr. James Wilson is a sustained release, pH balanced vitamin C complex that neutralizes the excess acidity of ascorbic acid and delivers the specific trace minerals and bioflavonoids the body needs to fully utilize vitamin C and recover from stress. This is a unique vitamin C formula designed to compensate for the changes in metabolic processes that occur in people experiencing adrenal fatigue and/or stress, and is a superior vitamin C supplement for general use.
